

News & Notes

Food Cupboard: Give what you can, take what you need.

Danica (Cheryl's granddaughter) returned home from hospital this week.

Kingston Church of Christ

Meeting at 446 College St., Kingston, ON K7L 4M7

www.kingstonchurchofchrist.ca

613-546-5409

KingstonChurchofChrist@yahoo.com

Every member a minister

Email kingstonchurchofchrist@yahoo.com for zoom link to Bible study at 7:00 pm Wednesdays.

November 13, 2022

“Quote” of the week

"The greatest proof of Christianity for others is not how far a man can logically analyze his reasons for believing, but how far in practice he will stake his life on his belief."

—T. S. Eliot

Scheduled to Serve:

	Today	Nov 20	Nov 27
Chair	Chad	Tony	Art
Speaking	Art	Chad	Craig Ford

Contributions: send to churchcollege@yahoo.com or leave in box in foyer.

Key to the Kingdom — Fridays 8:30 am on Vision TV

Bulletin: If you have news you would like to see shared in the bulletin, please get it to Art by Thursday noon (kingstonchurchofchrist@yahoo.com or 613-876-4605).

Welcome to our gathering! Please join us in worship and fellowship.

Please join us in worshipping God as we sing, pray and read the Bible. We also share communion each Sunday remembering the sacrifice of Jesus who gave himself to die for our sins. If you wish to partake with us, you are free to do so.

We hold the Bible to be God's inspired message for us and hold it in highest esteem.

If a question comes to mind, please ask it. We will try to help you find answers from God. Please let us know of any way we can serve you.

Let's Keep Praying For

- Meagan as she prepares for a new arrival
- Tohey's Mom in hospital
- Ron C facing heart issues
- The people of Ukraine & other war-torn areas
- Betty
- Dale and Marion's health
- Brian as he struggles with health issues
- Cancer patients: Shaun, Tim F, Patti-Anne, Anne

The World's Best Teacher

One afternoon early in my ministry, when I was supposed to be studying, I could not concentrate. I was in the throes of weariness, battling insomnia, a dozen insecurities and deadlines.

I was under the impression that I had to fix everyone's problems, shoulder everyone's burdens and never grow weary in doing so. After some moments, I moved from my office chair into the chair I used for guests. I bowed my head and sighed.

When I did, this scripture came to mind: "Come to Me, all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28, NASB).

I'd read the verse hundreds of times, but this particular time, it was the pronoun "Me" that struck me. I realized that I had been turning to everyone and everything but Him. The words of Jesus went from ink on a page to balm for my soul.

Why did that verse come to mind? Simple. The Holy Spirit, my Teacher, reminded me.

The Spirit has a specific, overarching mission. His task is to teach us about Jesus. Jesus tells us in John 14:26, "the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you."

Is this not great news? The Spirit who was present at creation, who was moving and active in Christ's incarnation and resurrection, and who will be present at the final return of Christ, the mighty hand at the final revelation —He is your Tutor. The invisible presence of God on earth invites you to enter His classroom and learn from Him. He will reveal new and wondrous things to you and remind you of Jesus!

We are not left alone with our questions. It is not up to us to solve the riddles of our existence. We have a Helper, a divine Instructor. He will save us from our confusion and doubt. He does this by enrolling us in the primary course of His university: Jesus Christ.

So let's invite the Holy Spirit into our world. Let's begin our days with the words "Welcome, Holy Spirit!" and aim to walk in the Spirit by inviting Him into the details of our lives. "Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit." (Galatians 5:25, NIV)

Let's allow these prayers to come quickly to our minds: In this moment, what are You teaching me? Or, How am I to respond to this challenge, Lord? Or, Direct me, please. Which way should I go?

Today, let's pause and listen and keep an ear inclined toward the Spirit.

~ Max Lucado